WILL PUT CAPITAL IN IT.

Regular Steamship Line to be Established.

ENGLISH COMPANIES TO INVEST.

Ships Being Purchased for the Line Which Will Run From Frisco to Headwaters of Yukon.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—The North West Mining and Trading Company, with offices located at 30 Broad street in this city, is in receipt of a proposition from one of the largest financial institutions in London soliciting a close relationship with it for the purpose of directing foreign capital into Alaska.

A prominent English Steamship company is also soliciting an alliance with this company with a view to extending its business.

Ex-Governor Campbell, of Ohio, is one of the chief movers in this company, in connection with certain prominent capitalists.

The company has already purchased steamships which will sail from New York around Cape Horn in January and will be ready to start from Seattle about the first of April. Six boats will be put in the service on the Yukon and a regular line will be established between San Francisco, Seattle, St. Michaels and the headwaters of the Yukon.

TRAIN ROBBERS CAUGHT.

Party Who Robbed the Gulf Passenger Captured in New Mexico.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

TRINIDAD, Col., Sept. 6.—The posse of men from this city that started from this city on the trail of the robbers who held up the Gulf passenger train at Twin mountain station Saturday morning has taken into custody five men supposed to be the perpetrators.

They were held up and captured near Springers, New Mexico. Among the prisoners are the three notorious Peenland brothers. Stolen goods were found in their possession. The posse is on its way to this city.

Baseball Today.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 6.—The home team took this morning's game from the visitors as follows:

	R	B	E
Baltimore	8	15	3
Pittsburg	7	11	3

Batteries: Hoffer and Robinson.

Killen and Sugden.

BOSTON, Sept. 6.—The locals were worsted by the Reds in today's game:

	R	B	E
Boston	3	5	0
Cincinnati	5	6	2

Lewis and Bergin, Breitenstein and Schriver.

BROOKLYN, Sept. 6.—Brooklyn doubled Chicago in this morning's game as follows:

	R	B	E
Brooklyn	14	26	4
Chicago	7	12	9

Dunn and Grim, Griffith and Kitzbridge.

NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—The Giants won from the tail enders without difficulty:

	R	B	E
New York	9	11	4
St. Louis	8	15	6

Sullivan and Warner, Sudhoff and Douglass.

Altgeld Was Chief Speaker.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 6. Ex-Governor John P. Altgeld, of Illinois, was the chief speaker this afternoon at the demonstration at Washington park by the United Labor League. Other speakers present were Gover Hastings, Mayor Warwick, Governor Griggs, of New Jersey and Governor Tunnell, of Delaware. The speaking began at 4 o'clock.

Admiral Coneyero Recalled.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

ROME, Sept. 6.—Admiral Coneyero, commanding the Italian squadron in Cretan waters, who by reason of his seniority of rank, was chosen by the other admirals to command the international fleet blockading Crete, has received orders recalling him from Cretan waters, together with the warships Sicella and Labenia.

Perished in the Flames.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

BOSTON, Sept. 6.—A house on Baker street was burned this morning in the rear of the Franklin brewery. Mrs. Stewart and her son perished in the flames. They were colored.

Wegive no market quotations today, as the exchange is closed on account of Labor Day.

Gratuitous Reports.

It has reached our ears, from various sources, that enemies of THE TELEGRAM are industriously circulating the report that THE TELEGRAM is an experiment, that it would shortly suspend publication, that our subscribers were for a month only and many of them were falling off. We have ignored these reports for a time, but feeling that some assurance is due our patrons, we have only to say that the patronage received has exceeded our expectations; that the number of subscribers we have lost is far on the safe side of a dozen, but on the contrary new subscribers are coming in daily; that our subscription books are always open to our patrons and an affidavit may always be had as to their accuracy.

THE TELEGRAM is not an experiment, but a reality; we are at least so encouraged that we are preparing to increase our equipment at an additional cost of a thousand dollars.

THE TELEGRAM is a permanent institution.

SOUTHERN COTTON MILLS.

Value of This Year's Cotton Crop. Mill Statistics.

Secretary Hester's New Orleans cotton exchange annual report just issued puts the commercial value of the crop at $36.76 per bale, against $31.09 last year, and $30 in 1894-'95, and the total value $321,925,000, against $294,045,000 last year, nearly $28,000,000 more than for the period of last year. The past crop cost growers less than any yet produced.

The total spindles in the south is 3,851,991, an increase of 158,753. The total number of mills is 482, an increase of 7.

Mr. Hester says that while the season had not been favorable to American mills, final results indicate the extent of the depression has been decidedly overstated in the public prints and otherwise. The takings north and south during the past year have been exceeded but twice in the previous 7 years. The mills of the north have worked up as much cotton, while those of the south used 138,000 bales more than last year.

Imports of foreign cotton amounted to the equivalent of 106,000 bales. Secretary Hester places the world's visible supply of cotton at 984,000 bales, 1,035,000 last week. Of this 771,000 is American against 803,000 last week.

The total visible supply shows a decrease compared with last year of 383,900.

Comments on Dr. Roberts' Lecture.

The Wheeling Register says in part: "An eminent and distinguished son of the South, Rev. Dr. J. H. Roberts, made his debut as a lecturer here before a large and unusually appreciative audience last evening. 'Messages of Today to the Men of Tomorrow,' is more than a lecture in the ordinary acceptance of the term.

It is not a sermon, though at times one feels that he is listening to an inspired revelation of Gospel. The antitheses, the climaxes, the similes and the quaintly and originally conceived turning points are marvels of rhetorical eloquence. For a young man or a young woman no greater blessing could be vouchsafed than hearing these great messages."

Mr. Bryan on the Situation.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Sept. 6.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch yesterday printed a letter from W. J. Bryan, the first utterance after three weeks of travel and observation, on the return of prosperity. Among other things, he says:

"Wheat has risen because the foreign crop has been exceedingly short. The fact that silver and wheat have parted company will cause no dismay to those who understand that the law of supply and demand regulates the price of both.

"Nothing can better disclose the weakness of the Republican position than the joy manifested by the Republicans over events for which their administration and their policies are in no wise responsible.

"If the Republicans desire to claim credit for the high price of wheat, they must assume the responsibility for the famine in India. A great rise in price should be followed by a rise in wages."

Mr. Bryan says "the joy over the increase of money from wheat is evidence that we have too little money; that if the farmers are benefitted by the rise in one of their products, how much better would it be if the rise was universal; that the price of wheat will fall when the foreign demand becomes normal, and that the present spasmotic rise will aid, rather than injure the cause of bi-metallicism."

K. of P. Notice.

All members of Greensboro Lodge, No. 80, K. of P. are requested to be present at the meeting to-night.

JOHN THOMAS, C. C.
A. H. STACK, K. of R. and S.

LAID HIM OUT.

A Piece of Stove-Wood Was the Weapon Used This Time.

Between 8 and 9 o'clock this morning John Williams and Sam Moffitt, two gents of color, with pugilistic inclinations, got into a dispute over some trivial matter, the dispute waxed warm, and finally terminated in blows.

Moffitt not being exactly satisfied at the progress the fight was making, picked up a piece of stove-wood lying near and made a telling blow on Williams' head with it. The blow had the desired effect in stopping the fight, and killing John "deader than a door nail" for a few minutes.

The fight occurred down the C. F. & Y. V. track, just below the Cape Fear Manufacturing Company's shops. A policeman was sent for immediately, but when he arrived Moffitt had left and Williams was being cared for by friends. He was placed in a box car, where he came around after a few minutes. The wound was not a serious one, as he was struck only on the head.

The last heard of Moffitt was when he was near Vandalia. Policeman Whittington telegraphed to several places down the road, but he has not yet been captured.

SUNDAY DIVERSIONS.

The "Meadow" Has Not Yet Been Converted.

Last Monday we announced that the "Meadow" was in a fair way of being converted into a camp meeting ground on Sundays as a result of "Parson" Moore's preaching. However, this vile locality continues to be the scene of rowdyism; but it may be on the road to improvement, as no very violent disturbances have occurred of late. One night, in which no one was seriously hurt, marred the serenity of the holy sabbath yesterday.

"Apple bottom" bids fair to become a rival, if not the successor of, the "Meadow." This "resort" is located out near the furniture factory, and furnished one fight yesterday to the Sunday record. A colored woman got mixed up in a fight and her assailant conceived an idea that she had a surplus supply of teeth. Today she is trying to digest her incisors as a result of the fight.

Two negroes also enlivened things over in Warnersville yesterday afternoon with a little "bout" in which no one was seriously injured.

Keeping Above Ground.

Mr. A. T. Robertson is having his house on Davie street raised. It will be remembered that the street at that point has been filled in several feet making it higher than the houses alongside. Mr. Robertson will have the house raised four feet so as to make it two feet higher than the street. Additional rooms will also be built and the building put in excellent condition generally. Mr. Robertson is a model citizen in this respect. His property is always carefully looked after; his sidewalks are kept in excellent condition; he neither grumbles nor lags. What needs doing he does, and that is the citizen that counts.

The work on Davie street is being done by J. S. Vawter, Salem's experienced and efficient house mover. He has a card in today's TELEGRAM.

Lecture Monday Night.

Dr. Charles Alphonso Smith will lecture in the court house on Monday night, September 6th, at 8:30 o'clock. His subject is "Southern Oratory Before the War." A discussion of the great orators who represented the south of ante-bellum days: Patrick Henry, Clay, Calhoun, Seargeant, Smith, Prentiss, etc.

Admission 25 cents. The proceeds will be added to the Greensboro public library fund.

GOVERNOR ELLERBE TALKS.

Pays His Respects to Judge Simonton.

FACTIONAL FEELING WEAKENING

The Judge's Decision Will Not Run the Dispensary Out of Business—McLaurin.

Governor Ellerbe of South Carolina came up from Columbia last night and spent the day at the Benbow. He said in reply to a question as to the effect of Judge Simonton's late decision on the dispensary system:

"It will not run the dispensary out of business though, of course, it will ultimately have the effect of decreasing dispensary sales. The statement of the dispensary for the month of August this year shows an increase of $4,000 over the month of August in 1896. We have been making the original package men live up to Judge Simonton's decision and shall continue to do so.

"Judge Simonton's decision is a blow aimed directly at state rights, as now known, and I do not believe the decision will stand, but think on the contrary it will be so modified as to allow the state to control the sale of liquor within its own bounds. The case has been appealed to the Supreme Court, but a final decision cannot be had before December."

Replying to a question as to whether McLaurin's nomination at the late primaries was to be taken as an endorsement of his tariff vote, the governor said: "It was not so much an endorsement of the senator's position on the tariff as a repudiation of his opponents. He voted on the tariff as he did merely because he believed tariff benefits should be equally distributed. Evans and Irby were both rather extremists; the result was that the conservatives of both factions voted for McLaurin while the extremists voted for Irby and Evans. McLaurin's majority of over 12,000 was decisive and practically ends the opposition. McLaurin's record as congressman from the Sixth district was very fine. He is one of the brainiest young men in the state and decidedly the best equipped man in the race. Despite Irby's talk, I think Tillman did not interfere in the least in the race and Irby does him an injustice in his charges. He said further:

"The primary system for nominating senators has the approval of the majority of the people, though, some object to it. It gives much less room for ring politics and log rolling, and I consider it a great deal better in that particular. Factional feeling is rapidly subsiding in South Carolina, and the people are getting nearer together than heretofore."

The governor is on his way to Mt. Airy, where he will spend some time with Senator McLaurin who has bought a cottage and is now keeping house there. He says he is suffering with his throat and is in rather feeble health from repeated attacks of la grippe. He looks decidedly weak and tired and the mountain air and water will doubtless prove very beneficial.

AN EXCELLENT RECORD.

Judge Adams made a record at the recent term of court here, with which any jurist might well be content. We have heard his decisions spoken of as equitable and impartial, by the bar and the laity. So far we have heard absolutely no adverse criticism. While not unnecessarily harsh, he gave the criminal to understand that the law must be respected and obeyed or the punishment would be sure and effective. We believe it is just such records that make for peace and order in the community. There is in this state an ex-judge of the superior court whose terms used always to be followed by a marked falling off in small crimes in the counties where he held court.

The duties of a judge are of such a nature that he usually comes in for more blame than praise and we take all the more pleasure, therefore, in calling attention to the satisfaction given by Judge Adams.

WE HAVE received a great many complaints, from subscribers who receive their papers through the mails, both in and out of the city, that their papers do not reach them. In some instances subscribers, to whom papers have been mailed regularly every day, claim not to have had a paper for two weeks. We wish to disclaim all responsibility for such irregularity and place it where it belongs—on the mail service. At the same time we will ask all mail subscribers who do not receive their paper regularly, hereafter, to report the matter at once. We will take steps to find out where the trouble lies, and take them very promptly.

FROM the number of Republicans who are busily engaged in reading Governor Russell out of the party, it is apparent that they are not extra proud of the "first Republican Governor for thirty years." They must be exceedingly hard to please. If neither Democrat nor Republican will satisfy, there yet remain Populist and Prohibitionist; they might complete the circuit by giving each of these a trial.

THAT report to the effect that Kansas farmers have so much money the banks of the state will not receive it on deposit, will be taken with a good, liberal pinch of salt by most people. What with the Klondike, and the river whose bed is pearls, in Arkansas, and this fairy tale from Kansas—its putting a pretty heavy weight on the credulity of even the American people.

THE Standard Oil Company has once more given evidence of its powers gastronomic, by swallowing at a gulp the twenty million dollar Equitable Gas Company, of New York. What are one or two poor little college presidents for an animal of such capacity?

THE new school book trust of Atlanta, having raised the price of books 20 per cent., may justly claim to be in favor of higher education.

THE Press-Visitor will now proceed to soothe itself; its Sunday glass of soda water is once more accessible.

EMPEROR WIELIAM and sausage-maker Luetger are now neck and neck in the race for popular attention. As Luetger has no more wives to boil and the Emperor has ancestors without number to boom, the latter will probably win in the finish.

REVEREND SAM JONES has been writing to the Atlanta Journal on "How to Get Dollars." We have often heard the comment made that Mr. Jones was able to discuss that topic.

NOBODY will be surprised to learn that a woman has proposed to the mayor of Boston: the Hub has been going in that direction for some years. It is a logical result, so to speak.

THE dispatches do not report that, on parting, Consul-General Lee and General Weyler fell upon each other's necks and wept or otherwise made the incident especially touching.

YESTERDAY'S Charlotte Observer contained a full length picture of Buck Newton. It is a queer coincidence that it should bear so strong a resemblance to "Red Buck."

DOTS FROM EDITORIAL QUILLS.

Tillman is blamed by his opponents for McLaurin's election, and by Irby and Evans for their defeat. It's blamed Ben any way you take it.—Atlanta Journal.

Explorer Jackson, who spent three years crawling about in the arctic region makes the horrible statement that his expedition killed 1,400 loons. Fratricide, palpable fratricide!—Norfolk Landmark.

Attorney-General Walser's latest expression regarding the law providing for imprisonment for non-payment of taxes, is that the act "is unconstitutional." Will Mr. Walser kindly hold to this opinion long enough for someone to tack him down? If he has been correctly quoted, he has expressed all sorts of opinions on this law.—Charlotte News.

Ex-Governor Griggs, of New Jersey, talked hard sense when in an address before the American Bar Association he said the legislatures in this country have been grinding out laws entirely too freely and rapidly for the people, so rapidly that even lawyers can't always keep up with them. And a bad grist a good deal of it is.—Wilmington Star.

With calm argument and incontrovertible statement of facts; without heat, without passion, without unnecessary and irritating crimination, honest Populists and Republicans ought to be shown from the records what the situation of public affairs in North Carolina has come to since 1894, and considerably appealed to to join with the Democrats in reversing the machinery and putting public affairs back upon a higher and better plane. Restoration may be effected by these methods; we all know that the other has been tried and has failed.—Statesville Landmark.

The railroad commission reduces rates on messages of the Western Union telegraph company. The company appeals. The governor forgets that the state has a general counsel in the person of the attorney general and employs four lawyers to represent it, though the case does not appear to be a very complicated one. The railroad commission calls in the services of the attorney general and there are five lawyers to keep watch and ward over a case to which one good lawyer ought to be equal. But who cares for expenses? North Carolinians are rich and have no poor kin.—Charlotte Observer.

In his late dissertation "Concerning Hard Times," Hon. Thomas B. Reed, writing in the illustrated American, declares that "there is a regular succession of prosperity and adversity, of adversity and prosperity, which varies in causes and appearances, but which is substantially the same century after century." He adds: "The alternation of good times and hard times antedates the pyramids." This is no doubt true. But while Speaker Reed was looking into the matter he might have given fresher interest to his topic by showing whether in all the tide of time he could find any parallel for the concurrence of hard times and Billion Dollar Congresses which have shaken the foundations of credit and confidence of late years in our own beloved country.—Philadelphia Record.

Rifaat Bey, until recently councillor of the Turkish embassy in London, has been appointed Turkish minister at Washington.

Senator Daniel, of Virginia, is out in a letter replying to Governor O'Ferrall who recently charged him with inconsistency.

Eight Armenians have been sentenced to death at Constantinople for complicity in the recent bomb outrages there.

Rev. Frank Vrooman, of Chicago, has become disgusted with the ministry and says he will organize a Klondyke mining company.

Rings found in the Luetgert vat were identified during the husband's trial for the murder of his wife as having belonged to the wife.

General Fitzhugh Lee, Consul-General at Havana, is returning to the United States. This action is said to be without political significance.

Ten thousand people have started from the Pacific coast for the gold fields of Alaska and the Klondyke region within the past two months.

Since Tuesday of the present week about 300 Turks have been arrested in Constantinople for supposed connection with the committee of the Young Turk party.

The speech of Emperor William at Coblenz is being very sharply criticized all all over Europe. He attempted to revive the claim to rule by divine right.

President Uriburn, of the Argentine Republic, in a message to congress, advocates increased duties on United States trade as a retaliation against the Dingley bill.

France will seek to secure tariff concessions by treaty and also through a commercial agreement, under which the President will make such reductions in duties as he may think proper.

Coal operators and strikers are considering two propositions—to call the strike off and accept 65 cents or to take 64 cents pending arbitration, which shall not make it more than 69 cents nor less than 60.

Mr. Coffin, the Acting Comptroller of the Currency, says the United States is accumulating a vast amount of capital, and will soon be financially independent of Great Britain, if it is not really independent now.

Samuel Gompers, the president of the American Federation of Labor, says he did not attend the St. Louis labor convention because the call invited representatives of bodies which are not labor organizations.

NEWS OF THE TAR HEEL STATE.

William M. Kelley, of Rockingham, is appointed by Judge Purnell a United States commissioner.

The scuppernong grape, which is as reliable as the blackberry, is on hand and as good as ever. The crop is heavy.

Reports to the bureau of labor statistics from seven saw mills in six counties in the east give a yearly "cut" of 40,000,000 feet.

The Lynchites, or Sanctified Band, are now at Southport in their "arks." Now the question is whether these nuisances will continue their journey southward and into South Carolina.

NUGGETS FROM ALASKA.

The first discovery of gold on the Klondyke was made in the middle of August, 1896, by George Carmack.

The only way into and out of the Klondyke in winter is by way of Juneau.

The Steamer which leaves St. Michaels August 1st will reach the Klondyke in September.

The only way to live is to imitate the Indians in dress and habit.

It is useless to wear leather or gum boots. Good moccasins are absolutely necessary.

The colder it is the better the traveling. When it is very cold there is no wind, and the wind is hard to bear.

Indian guides are necessary, to go ahead of the dogs and prepare the camp for night.

In the summer the sun rises early and sets late, and there are only a few hours when it is not shining directly on Alaska. In the winter the sun shines for a short time only each day.

In summer the weather is warm and tent life is comfortable. The winter lasts nine months.

Dogs are worth their weight in gold. A good long-haired dog sells from $150 to $200.

Skates might be used to good advantage at times.

The Yukon river is closed by ice from November to the latter part of May.

On the Klondyke the thermometer goes as low as 60 degrees below zero.

There is a great variety of berries to be found all through the country in summer.

Game is very scarce.

Vegetables of the hardier sort can be raised.

Stock can be kept by using care in providing abundantly with feed by ensilage or curing natural-grass hay and by housing them in the winter.

In summer abundance of fine grass can be found near the river.

In appearance the natives are like the North American Indians.

They live in temporary camps both winter and summer, either in the mountains or on the river, according to the habit of the game they are hunting.

Gold was first discovered in the vicinity of Sitka by Frank Mahoney, Edward Doyle and William Dunlay in 1873.

With the first breath of spring the upriver people prepare for their annual meeting with their friends from the outside world.

The Yukon is navigable for a 250-ton steamer for a distance of 1,600 miles.

At a distance of 600 miles from the ocean the Yukon river is more than a mile wide.

The Klondyke mining region is in the latitude of Iceland and lower Greenland.

The longitude of St. Michaels is farther west than that of Honolulu.

WILL RESIGN THE PRESIDENCY.

Seth Low to Vacate his Place in Columbia College During the Race.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

NEW YORK, Sept. 6.—Seth Low, who accepted the nomination of the citizens' union for mayor of Greater New York, will resign the presidency of Columbia College immediately. He will hand in his resignation at the next meeting of the board of trustees of the University.

There is much speculation as to whether he will again be president if he is defeated at the polls. Secretary Beebe intimates that the trustees may lay the resignation on the table pending the outcome of the election.

Don't Miss It.

If you contemplate taking a trip to the "Land of the Sky," don't forget West's popular excursion to Asheville September 14th. The train leaves Greensboro at 11:45 a. m., and the fare is only $2. Good board can be secured from $1 to $2 per day. This is the grandest and best opportunity ever offered the public, and this will positively be the last excursion of the season to Asheville.

To Our City Subscribers.

If you have subscribed for THE TELEGRAM and don't get it, or receive it irregular, please let us know. Send us word, drop as a postal, phone or call at the office and inform us of the fact. We will be sorry for the mistake having occurred and will try to remedy it.

RAILROAD SIGNALS.

Explanation of the Whistles and Signals that Mean Life or Death.

How many of THE TELEGRAM'S readers who travel up and down the many lines of railroads which lead out of and converge here, know what the many "whistle-blows," "flags" and lantern signals mean?

The engineer does not waste his steam for fun, the flagman does not chase a mile to put up his flag without reason, and the lantern man does not fill it and trim it and keep it that way without cause. It all means something, and that something is the preservation of the lives of the passengers.

A TELEGRAM man interviewed one of the oldest men on the Southern railway this morning as to what those signals mean, and with a view of familiarizing its readers with their meaning, and in this way, perhaps prepare some of them to take care to observe the signals and keep out of danger; if in danger, to look out for themselves. These are the principal ones:

Whistles.

One long blast—station blow.
Two long and two short blasts—road or street crossing.
Continuous short blasts—Danger ahead.
Two short blasts—Answer to signals or in passing any train.
Same whistle signal in crossing a bridge.
Two long blasts—Take off brakes.
One long and one short—Put on brakes.
Three short blasts—Back up.
Four short blasts—Calls in the flagman from the south, trouble over.
Four long blasts and one short—calls in the flagman from the north.
Five long blasts—Send out flagman, danger.

Lantern Signals.

Swung up and down—go ahead.
Across—Stop.
In a circle—Back up.

Flag Signals.

Green on rear of car means that it is end of train.
Green on the engine shows that another section of the same train is following on the same time and with the same rights.
Red means danger wherever you see it, on the train or track.
White tells of safety to travellers or employees or engineers.
A white flag on an engine is a sign that it is an extra.
A blue flag on a car or in the yard means keep away, the car inspector is at work.
Cut this out and paste it where you can see it, or carry it with you when you travel, and you will not have to ask the conductor so many questions.

Church Notes.

Rev. Dr. J. H. Roberts, of Parisburg, Va., who is to lecture in the academy of music tomorrow night on "Messages of Today to Men of Tomorrow," occupied the pulpit at the West Washington street Baptist church last night, preaching a most excellent sermon. He is a pleasing speaker and was listened to last night with interest by the large congregation.
Dr. Weaver preached a fine sermon in West Market street church yesterday morning. His text was, "Why stand ye here all the day idle?" His remarks were timely and well put, and his sermon was strong and practical, as are all his efforts.

The music was a special feature of the services at West Market yesterday morning. The choir has been much improved of late, and it is now probably better than it has ever been.

Can't Secure a House.

THE TELEGRAM knows of a prominent traveling man who wants to move his family to Greensboro, but is kept away by his inability to secure a suitable house. There has never been a time in the history of our city when houses were in such great demand as now, and yet new houses are constantly being built in different sections of the city.

Our men of means could make no better investment just at this time than in putting their money in modern residences, for they can be rented without any trouble and kept rented. This state of affairs argues well for the future of Greensboro, and we hope more of our capitalists will investigate this matter of house building.

We call attention to the notice of the lecture of Dr. Charles Alphonso Smith, of the University of Louisiana, on "Southern Oratory before the War." Dr. Smith inherits the eloquence of his father, our own Dr. J. Henry Smith, and upon so fertile a subject would not hesitate to promise a treat to those who go. The proceeds could not go to a better cause—the public library.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL.
